

PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOP

Veterinary Oncology

Changing Paradigms in Small Animal Medicine and Oncology

 Thursday 23 July 2026 8:30AM to 5:30PM  Gold Coast Convention & Exhibition Centre

Dr Claire Cannon, Registered Specialist in Veterinary Oncology
Senior Lecturer, University of Melbourne

Liquid biopsies, genomics and mutation-based diagnostics
Tyrosine Kinase Inhibitors
Canine Pheochromocytoma

Dr Sita Withers, Registered Specialist in Veterinary Oncology
Senior Lecturer, Adelaide University

Canine Lymphoma - Moving on from "B is better, T is terrible"
Updates in Cancer Immunotherapy

Dr Sarah Wetzel, Registered Specialist in Veterinary Medical Oncology
ACVR Veterinary Radiation Oncology Resident

The Old, The New, and The Upcoming: Advancements in Radiation Therapy

Dr Brett Stone, Registered Specialist in Veterinary Pathology
Veterinary Pathologist, Vetnostics Pathology

Advanced Diagnostic Techniques

This pre-conference day highlights emerging diagnostics and treatments that are redefining small animal oncology.

Designed for advanced general practitioners, residents and specialists, the program emphasises practical, practice-changing insights from leading international experts.

$495 ANZCVS Members
$545 Non-Members
$280 Residents

REGISTER NOW
www.vetscienceweek.com.au